INDICTMENT

COUNT ONE

(Conspiracy to Commit Mail Fraud and Bank Fraud)

The Grand Jury for the District of Maryland charges that:

Introduction

At all times material to this Indictment:

1. Defendant ██████████ was a resident of Maryland.

2. Defendant ENRICO ANTWAN HOOD-JACKSON ("HOOD-JACKSON")

was a resident of Maryland.

3. Navy Federal Credit Union, Bank of America, Chase, and other consumer banks (collectively, the "victim financial institutions") were financial institutions within the meaning of

18 U.S.C. § 20 in that their deposits were insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund.

4. The victim businesses included postal customers located in Maryland, Virginia, Washington, D.C., Pennsylvania, and Texas.

5. The individual victims of criminal activities described in this Indictment were postal customers and included Individual A and Individual B, residents of Maryland.

The Conspiracy and Scheme to Defraud

6. Beginning at least on or about January 31, 2022, and continuing through at least on or about November 8, 2022, in the District of Maryland and elsewhere, the defendants,

[REDACTED] and
ENRICO ANTWAN HOOD-JACKSON,

did knowingly and willfully combine, conspire, confederate, and agree with each other and others known and unknown to the Grand Jury:

a. to commit bank fraud, that is, to execute and attempt to execute a scheme and artifice to defraud the victim financial institutions, and to obtain and attempt to obtain monies, funds, credits, assets, and securities owned by, and under the custody and control of, the victim financial institutions by means of materially false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and promises (“the scheme to defraud”), in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1344; and

b. to commit mail fraud, that is, to devise and intend to devise a scheme and artifice to defraud the victim financial institutions, and to obtain money and property from the victim financial institutions by means of false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, promises, and material omissions (“the scheme to defraud”), and for the purpose of executing and attempting to execute the scheme to defraud, to take and receive from any post office and authorized depository for mail matter any matter or thing to be sent or delivered by the Postal Service, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1341.

Manner and Means of the Conspiracy and Scheme to Defraud

7. It was part of the conspiracy and scheme to defraud that:

- a. [REDACTED] HOOD-JACKSON, and their coconspirators forcibly robbed United States Postal Service ("USPS") mail carriers of proprietary Arrow keys, which allowed access to USPS depositories.
- b. [REDACTED] HOOD-JACKSON, and their coconspirators used the stolen Arrow keys to access authorized USPS depositories in order to take mail matter, including checks that the victim businesses and individual victims had placed in the mail for delivery to various payees.
- c. [REDACTED] HOOD-JACKSON, and their coconspirators altered checks stolen from the mail so that the checks appeared to be payable to accounts the conspirators controlled.
- d. [REDACTED] HOOD-JACKSON, and their coconspirators negotiated and caused to be negotiated the altered checks, thereby obtaining funds that were in the care, control and custody of the victim financial institutions.
- e. [REDACTED] HOOD-JACKSON, and their coconspirators traveled to branches of the financial institutions hosting the accounts which the conspirators controlled, deposited checks into those accounts, and subsequently withdrew the funds.
- f. [REDACTED] HOOD-JACKSON, and their coconspirators fraudulently obtained and attempted to obtain at least $859,000.00 from the individual and business victims.

as well as victim financial institutions, by diverting funds from individual and business victims' accounts into accounts the coconspirators controlled.

18 U.S.C. § 1349

COUNTS TWO AND THREE
(Bank Fraud)

The Grand Jury for the District of Maryland further charges that:

1.
